

PorchLight is a Family Justice Center located in Jefferson County, Colorado that brings together critical services to support those currently experiencing:

Domestic Violence

Sexual Assault

Stalking

Human Trafficking

At-Risk-Individual & Elder Abuse

Crimes Against Children

Finding yourself or a loved one experiencing the trauma of abuse can be scary and overwhelming. It's often hard to know where to start.

In our community, you can start at PorchLight.

At PorchLight, survivors are not alone. Over 20 different agencies are available, for free and without appointment, to support those experiencing trauma and abuse. In addition, victim advocates help navigate the network of support, empowering survivors to move forward with hope and resilience.

On-site resources include:

Childcare, Protection Orders, Advocacy, Therapy, Legal Support, Pet Care, Hair Salon, Law Enforcement, Medical Care, Safety Planning, Resource Navigation and more

Experiencing violence is hard enough, getting support shouldn't be.

Before PorchLight's opening in 2021, survivors would have to travel nearly 174 miles between service providers to access critical supports such as medical care, legal information, advocacy, and mental health support.
